The Kansas State Historical Society solicits diaries, letters, and other original records, books and pamphlets written by Kansans or about Kansas, territorial and state newspapers up to 1876, photographs, and maps and atlases of the state. The Society will also be glad to consider objects suitable for the museum, especially those having a direct connection with Kansas history.

Gifts and bequests for the furtherance of the Society's work will be gratefully received. Such remembrances, in various forms, are appropriate permanent memorials to the interests of an individual or a group. A representative of the Society will be glad to consult with anyone wishing to make a gift or to establish a bequest or endowment. Address the Executive Director, KANSAS STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, 120 W. Tenth St., Topeka, Kan. 66612.

THE COVER

The Isaac Goodnow house in Manhattan, now a museum operated by the Kansas State Historical Society. Etta Parkerson lived here during the period covered by her diary, 1874-1875—see the autumn issue, pp. 201-219, and this issue, pp. 255-278. This view is of the back of the house, the part where Etta lived and worked as a housekeeper for her Uncle William Goodnow. The front part of the house was rented.
